

Montana Recording Artist Doug Adkins

With a rich, deep voice and distinctive song writing style, Montana Americana Country singer-songwriter Doug Adkins is releasing his 9th studio album “Dirt Roads and 20 years of writing and singing country songs is marked with the release of arguably the best writing of his career. Songs full of imagery and storytelling up in Montana and the Midwest. If you ever wanted to take a peek inside, this the listener a powerful opportunity to connect with the artist himself. “Dirt Roads the 9th studio cd will have you wishing you too could buy an old pickup truck and old dirt road.

Fence Lines.”

about life growing collection gives and Fence Lines”, head on down an

About Doug Adkins

After attending summer music camp at 17 years old with his trombone and watching other kids play guitar, Doug Adkins came home and asked for a guitar for his 18th birthday. He got that guitar for his birthday and wrote his first song the very next day. Adkins recalls, “It wasn’t much of a song but it lit the bug and I knew I was a songwriter!” Since that fateful music camp and 18th birthday, it’s 200 songs and counting.

“Dirt Roads And Fence Lines”

Drums - Lonnie Wilson / Electric, Acoustic Guitars and Banjo - Brent Mason / Bass Guitar – Jimmy Carter / Steel Guitar and Dobro – Scotty Sanders / Harmonies – Lonnie Wilson / Recorded & Mixed at The Ridge in Franklin Tennessee

All Songs Written by Doug Adkins

Station I.D. Requests Write To: dougadkinscountry@gmail.com

WWW.DOUGADKINS.COM • DOUGADKINSCOUNTRY@GMAIL.COM

www.facebook.com/dougadkinsmusic/ twitter: @adkinscountry www.youtube.com/user/dougadkinscountry
U.S. (701) 214 4816 / EUROPE +49 172349 0068